

BLU News! March 2016

Spring is nature's way of saying, 'Let's party!'

Robin Williams

THE CLOCKS GO FORWARD ON SUNDAY 27th MARCH @01.00 am.

If you enjoy your time at the Lido, whether in classes, at the gym or in the pool, you will want to read its only biography, Out of the Blue, sold by Herne Hill Books in Railton Road and written by Brockwell Lido user, Peter Bradley.

SPORT RELIEF 2016 AT BROCKWELL LIDO

There's still time to sign up for the 2016 Swimathon from 18th - 20th March, as an individual or in team for Sport Relief. You'll feel amazing while doing something terrific!

We're delighted to report a record number of swimmers who took part in the Crisis Mid Winter Swim in December. A belated well done and thanks to all involved.

PARKS AND RECREATION

Once the drainage is complete (see below) there will be digging and planting opportunities at the back of the Lido with BPCP. Anyone interested in volunteering can contact Susy Hogarth directly at susy.hogarth@btopenworld.com for dates and times.

THE LIDO CAFE

The Lido Cafe has a splendid new pop up menu. After the enormous success of Tem Ban Thai, we welcome Papi's Pickles who are running a tiffin and dosa pop up every Thursday and Friday nights at the Lido Cafe until early April. We can't wait to taste their food! We advise you to book, Tem Ban booked out the Lido Cafe very quickly and we are sure Papi's Pickles will too. It's an innovative way to keep the menu fresh while giving new chefs the chance to shine and tempt our palates!

The Lido Cafe will close at 4pm on Friday 18th March for private hire.

MAINTENANCE

You'll be pleased to hear that Lambeth have started flood prevention work behind the Lido. Women's dry side & studio toilets have been fixed. Middle upright cycle casing and stepper has been fixed. Rachel's 2pm Sunday yoga class will extend to 90 mins. A start date for this is to be advised.

That's it for this month! Short and sweet! Enjoy the start of spring! And remember, if we don't know something is broken we cannot fix it. Yell, scream, tell a member of staff or a member of BLU (our glossy faces are outside the gym on the BLU board) but PLEASE, tell us!
