Midsummer & Midwinter

An amazing number of people evoked the spirits of the Brockwell Icicles, those hardy Christmas dippers of yore, by turning up on December 22nd for last year's winter swim. Now watch for details of the midsummer swim on 21st June. We hope both the icy & the magical dive-in will become yearly events.

Soul

What would the Lido be

Without water

Dry and dull

And like a big hole

The water is its soul

It's just like Arsenal scoring

A goal Joshua – aged 7

Now that the Lido, with BLU's determined help, has survived, is (mostly) refurbished & resplendent in its new finery - the gym, the therapy pool, the studios, the whippersnapper space - & all that glass... what should BLU's role be?

Arbiter of complaints?

Passer-on of information?

Admirer & criticiser of Fusion?

Initiator of events?

Keeper of the Lido soul?

Your committee thought all of the above & especially the last item. Should you

Subscribe £5 per annum?

Donate what you can afford?

We couldn't decide. New treasurer, Sara Neish, waits & wonders. Meanwhile...

Fusion membership pack will include information on BLU as will their prominently-displayed brochure

BLUdays & BLUbooks

As part of its role as soulkeeper BLU will be publishing Waterwords this year: poems and pictures, mostly by children, made by the pool and in the park last year for the Lido's 70th. We are still seeking finance for this project (see enclosed flier) but we are confident of a grand launch in August with help from Whippersnappers. Expect readings, music, comedy... & don't forget Out of the Blue our splendid 2007 history & celebration of Brockwell Lido now available at a special price of £5 to BLU members
